HARDING CHOSEN

G. O. P. Landslide Most Sweeping in U. S. History.

(Louisville Herald)
New York, Nov. 3, (2:00 A. M.)—Incomplete returns, but conclusive from all sections of the country, at this hour show that Senator Warren G. Harding has been elected President by the greatest plurality in American history. The indications are that the Republican national ticket has been swept into office by a landslide which will shatter the record established by Theodore Roosevelt in 1901 when Alton B. Parker was beaten by more than 2,500,000 votes.

It appears certain that Senator Harding has won in 32 states, capturing 372 electoral votes to 122 for Gov. James M. Cox. Only two states—New Mexico and Utah, with seven electoral votes—seem to be in doubt at this hour. The Democratic national ticket has succeeded in carrying but thirteen states, equalling Parker's low record of 1901.

In New York State the Republican victory was absolutely unprecedented, the Harding-Coolidge ticket rolling up a plurality which will exceed 750,000.

Republican Congress Elected.
The nation not alone heeded Senator Harding's plea for an emphatic repudiation of the Wilson League of Nations and unmistakable condemnation of the administration's policies, but likewise answered his demand for a Republican Congress to carry out his policies.

In the next Senate the Republicans, according to indications tonight, will have a majority of from six to eight and in the House of Representatives a lead of nearly seventy.

By 10 p. m. there were enough returns at hand to make Senator Harding's election a foregone conclusion regardless of the way the remainder of the country went. The following states were considered safely in the Republican column:

New York, with 45 electoral votes; Massachusetts, 18; New Jersey, 14; Pennsylvania, 38; Illinois, 29; Vermont, 4; Maine, 6; Rhode Island, 5; Kansas, 10; Ohio, 24; New Hampshire, 4; Connecticut, 7; Colorado, 6; Michigan, 12; Indiana, 13, and Nebraska, 5.

With such a crushing Republican states as California, the Dakotas, Iowa, Minnesota, Washington and Oregon still to be added from this total of 288 electoral votes accounted all but the most optimistic Democrats that this battle was over.

ERNST ELECTED SENATOR.

Though Cox Carried State and King Swept Races in Eighth District.

Early returns indicated that Kentucky had gone Democratic, but later returns show that there has been much crossing and now Republican state headquarters are claiming that the election of Richard P. Ernst, for U. S. Senator, is sure.

King Swept, who has twice been elected to Congress from the Eighth district, largely Democratic, lost this year to his opponent, Ralph W. Gilbert by possibly 3,000, though he ran ahead of the ticket. Louisville and Jefferson county again went over-

Republicans Elect Governor of Tennessee.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 2.—Col. A. A. Taylor, Republican, has been elected Governor of Tennessee over Gov. A. H. Roberts by a majority of from 15,000 to 18,000. Colonel Taylor is a brother of ex-Gov. Robert L. Taylor, who was senator from Tennessee at the time of his death.

Ben Franklin, of Alton Station and father of Dr. E. T. C. L. and Chesley Franklin, is making his first visit to Barbourville. He is delighted with the city and it's sociable people. We cordially invite him to join the other Franklin boys here and be one of us. We can't have too much of a good thing in the way of constructive citizenship.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES.

One of the most enjoyable occasions that has ever come pass in our new High School building came last Friday night in the High School, when the kind and thoughtful Juniors and Seniors entertained the faculty. The evening was spent in social games and music, which everyone enjoyed highly.

On Monday morning we were entertained at our usual chapel hour by special temperance program. Speeches were made by Mrs. Minton, Mrs. B. W. Cole, of the First National Bank, and Prof. Buck.

At this same hour every teacher the building gave a temperance program of some sort, in order to comply with the new law.

Miss Jump is giving a series of valuable lectures on nursing to High School girls twice a week.

Quite a number of the girls are attending the lectures.

Dr. Minton has been giving to high school a series of fine address on Bible characters every Tuesday. The students and faculty appreciate these splendid talks very much.

MISS JUMP MAKES REPORT.

The following list of nursing teaching activities has been furnished by Miss Effie Jump, our Red Cross nurse and shows the benefit to the community of the presence of a trained nurse, both from the standpoint of teaching and practice.

64 bed side calls, 20 instructive 10 school talks, 4 classes consisted 70 students completed in Home hygiene and care of the sick. Out number, forty students are given take the examination. The element of individual drinking of two rural schools. Organized classes in High School and will be one in Union College and the list institute.

ELECTION DAY.

Following earnest prayer to the weather man the Democrats managed to open election day with skies soggy with rain, which poured down in unbroken torrents. It looked for a moment like the enemy's camp, in which there was frank rejoicing, since it appeared like an all-day rain and a barrier to voting on the part of the people living in isolated districts. But, J. P. is a proverbial joker and old Sol was soon showing his beaming face and the Harding camp began to cheer up. Crowds began to come into town early, in spite of the weather, and not only did they vote, but they flocked into the stores, which did a fine business. Aunt Dilla Jones, 107 years old, cast her first vote for the Log Cabin at Wheeler, Knox county, Ky.

One of the colored brothers, speaking loud and clear on Monday night, advised his hearers against selling their votes for Democratic old coats and shoes.

HALLOWEEN PARTIES.

The Barbourville Baptist Institute, through the agency of the B. W. U., put on a most successful Halloween party on Saturday night. A big crowd attended and the fun waxed hilarious. B. B. I. entertainments are always good.

Another pleasant Halloween party was that of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. and Mrs. Ben Herndon last Saturday night. Ghosts of a superlative thinness and phosphorescently luminous were on tap, as it were. Guy L. Dickinson
